Choir

1987

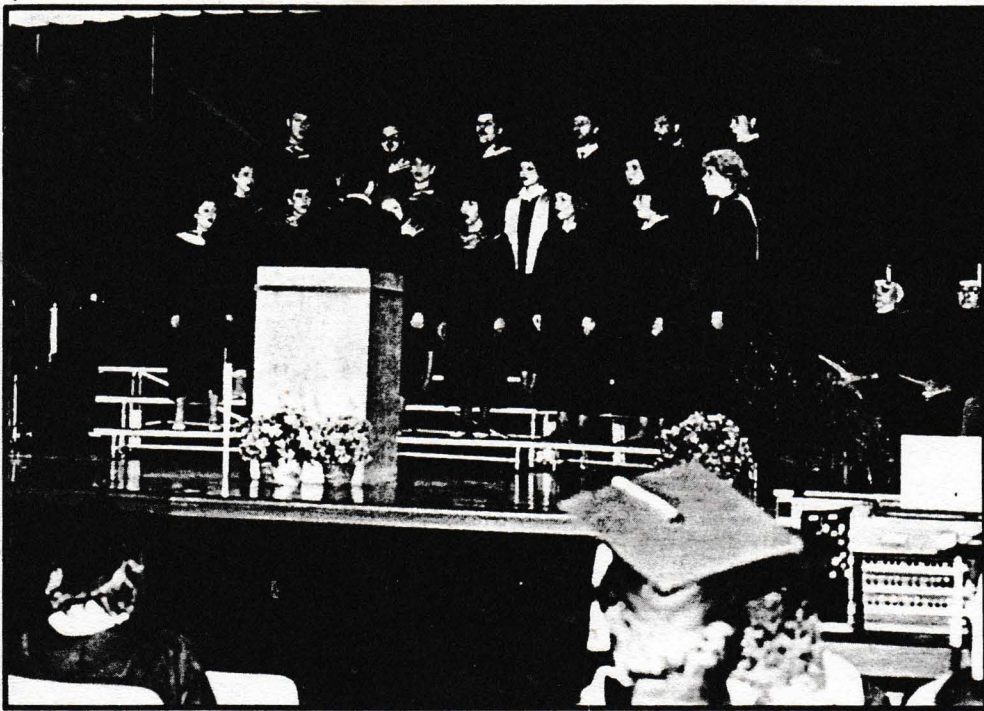

The choir is a very special and vital part of Clarke College. Members are chosen by audition and are a cross representation of the student body. They are directed by Mr. Clark Adams, Chairman, Department of Music. Accompanist is Mrs. Marion Thornton, Director of Clarke's Piano Preparatory Program. Each year the choir travels to several states to perform before church groups. The 1986-87 tour carried them to Alabama, Tennessee, South Carolina, Georgia and finally, back to "good ole Mississippi."

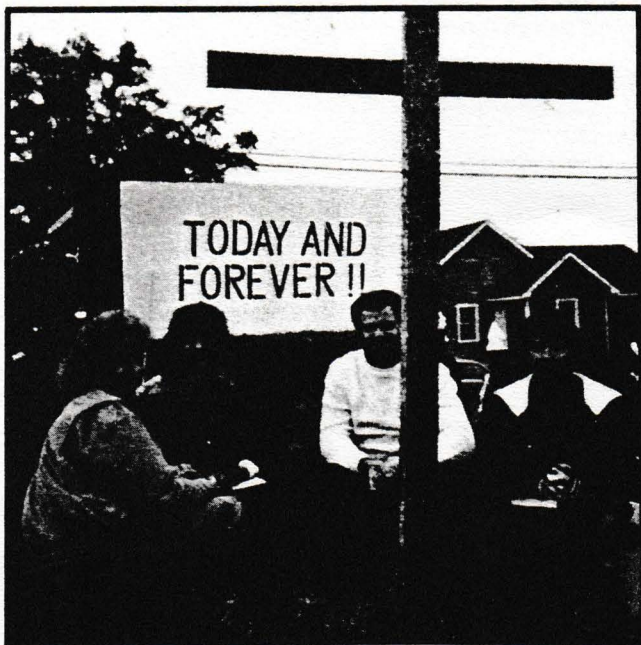

Singers

Make a joyful noise unto the Lord all ye lands. Psalm 100:1

CLARKE SINGERS

Clarke Col

The 1989 Choir Tour consisted of only three states: Tennessee, Alabama and Mississippi. Throughout the week of April 7-16, much recruiting and singing were done but underneath it all, much love, devotion and togetherness were experienced as well.

1989

College Singers

The Clarke College Singers consists of sixteen small voices and eighteen big hearts. Six male and ten female voices are under the direction of Mr. Clark Adams. Accompanist, Mrs. Marian Thornton also puts in a few notes. Members are: /Sopranos: Carol Ann Adkins, Philadelphia; Sondra Davidson, Butler, AL; Connie Marshall, Grenada, Linda Pace, Meridian; Altos: Dana Archie, Meridian, Megan Griffin, Jackson; Angie Hebert, Chauvin, LA; Debra Ruddick, Newton; Misty Smith, Newberry, FL; Dana Spohr, Huntsville, AL; Tenors are: Mark Jones, Carthage; Dan Woodard, Long Beach and Lee Youngblood, Hickory; Basses: Chris Adkinson, Meridian; Terry McNally, Philadelphia, MS and Dewey Norvell, Lucedale.

1990

Dr. Charles Melton began teaching at Clarke in 1962. His education includes attending New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary for his Masters of Religious Education. He went to Union University for his Bachelor of Arts and he attended Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary for his Doctorate of Religious Education. Dr. Melton is blind. Interesting enough, many people attend Clarke College without ever knowing this.

Ms. Nell Adams

Ms. Nell Adams has been teaching at Clarke for fifteen years. Ms. Adams attended Mississippi State University, University of Southern Mississippi, and William Carey College. At William Carey, Ms. Adams received her Bachelor of Music and Master of Music degrees. Ms. Adams has two daughters and lives on campus.

1990 Mrs. Marion Thornton

Mrs. Marian Thornton has taught at Clarke since 1981. She has had the tolerance to withstand many wrong notes throughout those 9 years of instructing piano. Mrs. Thornton attended East Central Community College where she received her Associate of Arts degree. She completed her MMed. at the University of Southern Mississippi then, she did additional work at Mississippi State University. Mrs. Thornton, better known as "Momma T.", is the pianist for the choir and singers and goes on all tours.

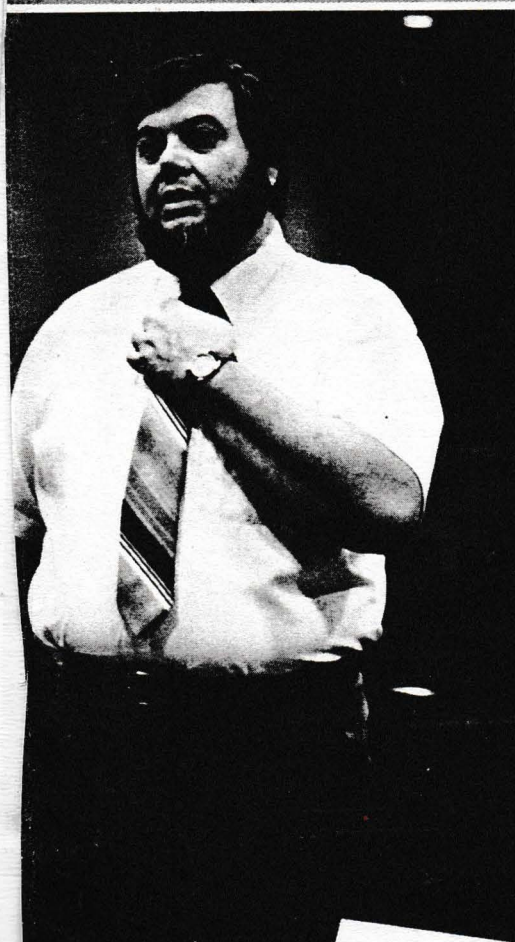

Department of Music

Clark Adams

Clark Adams has been at Clarke since 1971. Mr. Adams attended William Carey College where he received his Bachelor of Music degree, as well as his Master of Music degree. He did additional work at the University of Southern Mississippi and the New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary.

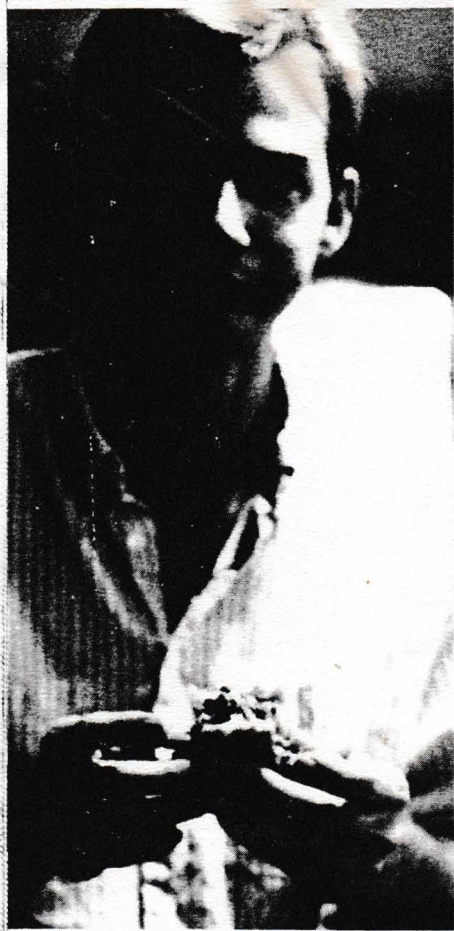

Clark Adams is known for not having his picture taken; therefore, the annual staff took it upon itself to catch him when he least expected it.

Choir tour is always a highlight. Practice four days a week for two semesters pays off. During the blessed week, the Singers have the opportunity to share Christ through song.

Though it has been said that the tour exhausts a person physically, spiritually, emotionally, and mentally, there is pleasure too. The tour took the choir to Disney World in April.

The Music Club, sponsored by the Music Department, is a student chapter of the Music Educators National Conference.

This year's Club consists of seventeen students who have shown a fervent interest in the field of Music. A member does not necessarily need to major in Music, he should only be an appreciator of the art.

SINGERS CLARKE COLLEGE SENIORS

The Clarke College Singers presented Menotti's AM AHL AND THE NIGHT VISITOR at Christmas time under the direction of Mr. James B. McElroy, with Miss Juanita West as drama consultant.

Throughout the year the Singers represent the school in churches, schools, conventions, and at civic meetings in the state and in neighboring states. They appear on television and on tour.

These scenes behind the scenes are typical of the preparation for the AM AHL production: rehearsal, costuming, planning and construction of sets, then the final make-up for the big presentation.

The Basketball Folk Group has done a remarkable job this year in carrying out the theme of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. This group, composed of all members of the FCA, is primarily a group of young men who, at a church's or a high school's invitation, go out and perform, present skits, and have testimonies and really prove what a Christ-centered life can do for an athlete. We commend this group for the high morale they upheld and hope that the group will continue to exist.

THE CHOSEN FEW is a folk group who have come together this year to combine their talents to create a sound of which they are proud. They have performed at numerous banquets and talent shows and are always accepted for their musical abilities. The group is composed of Everet Sollie, leader, Nellie Bridges, Rhonda Gregory, and Sharon Mitchell.

THE SOUNDS OF SILENCE presents music of all around good taste for all occasions. These five have searched and found the right kind of music to present for all kinds of entertainment and to all age groups. Sponsored by the music department, the group is composed of Leland Fuller, leader, Martha Hilton, Elaine Martin, Philip Reitzammer, and Janet Husbands.

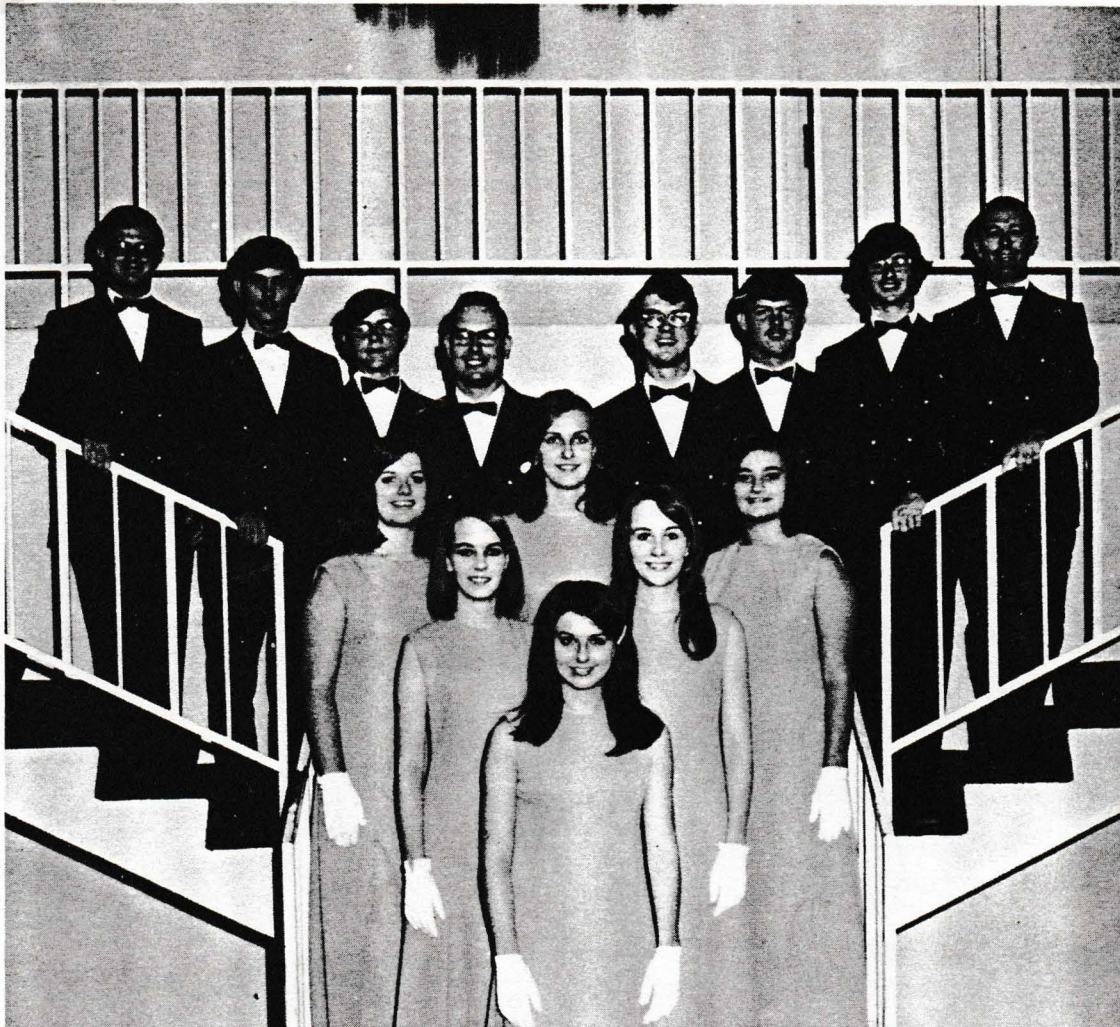

THE SOUL SEEKERS is our newest addition to the independent musical groups, and it differs in the respect that they are a gospel quartet. This quartet, composed of Gene Gillis, Paul Bryant, Gary Cornett, and Chris Spurlock, has performed for the college and for revivals.

1971 19

CLARKE SINGERS

The Clarke College Singers under the direction of Mr. James McElroy consist of the Choralettes and Choralaires. Choralettes include Jackie Valentine, Sara Alston, Sharon Blackwell, Diane McDill (accompanist), Lana Stinger, Cathy Collins, and Bobbie Smith. Choralaires include Dan Guest, Dick Webb, Eddie Estes, Bill Wade, Gary Breland, Ronnie Cottingham, Harold Wilcox, Leon Lindsay. On scholarships, the Singers represent the college by performing sacred and popular music throughout the year.

TV, TOUR, TOPS

Three of the Sophomore Altoes, Rhonda Gregory, Rita Brashier, and Elaine Martin during the Meridian concert.

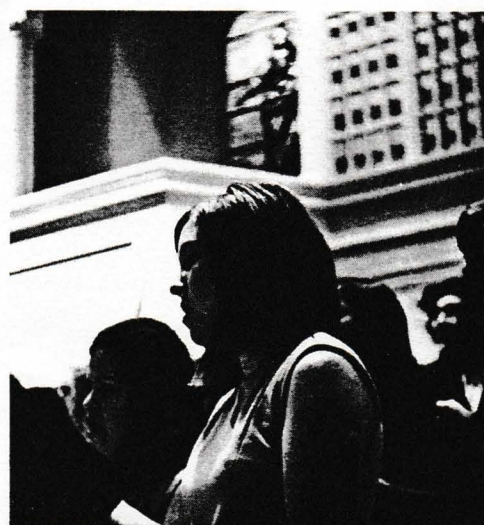

The Concert Choir of Clarke College had a terrific year with many opportunities to represent Clarke. The undertaking of a TV show at Christmas and the annual tour (reaching as far as Florida) highlighted the year. The presentation of Handel's "Messiah" and the "Gloria" by DeValti proved the great musical ability of the choir. The choir was under the direction of Mr. J.B. McElroy. The 1970-71 Concert Choir was truly one of the finest Clarke has ever had.

During the Meridian concert the choir was accompanied by Mr. Wayne Duggin on the organ.

Concert choir soloists: C. Collins, alto; Laurie Kirkland, soprano; D. Sanders, soprano; D. Guest, tenor; S. Blackwell, contralto; B. Wade, bass; seated J. Clarke, accompanist.

Two freshman sopranoes, Glenda Dozier and Laurie Kirkland during the Meridian concert.

THE CHORALE

Clarke had the privilege of hosting the first Community Chorale which was organized the beginning of second semester. Composed of local musicians, faculty and staff members and students, the Chorale came about because of the efforts of Mr. Clark Adams, voice instructor at Clarke. Assisting him was Mrs. Dan Davies who served as accompanist for the Chorale. The Chorale proved most successful and was an inspiration to everyone involved. After much hard work and preparation, the Chorale presented parts of the oratorio, ELIJAH. They also entertained with several other varied numbers. The tremendous success of the Chorale provided a good foundation on which to build for 1972.

The Concert Choir is a selective organization to which students are admitted by audition. This choir enables participating students to further their music education by actual involvement in a competently led choir. The concert choir is composed of two smaller groups—the C's and the Singers. These two groups use their voices both to entertain and to inspire their listeners. Their leader is Mr. McElroy.

SINGERS

Being a member of a musical group at Clarke College is a special privilege. It requires many hours of dedication and practice. But the hours don't seem so long because everyone has such a good time. The spring Choir Tour takes students to churches and schools throughout the South. Many-times the choir performs twice a day. In 1981 the choir took their special message to people in Mississippi, Alabama, Kentucky and Tennessee.

Fifteen choir members form a separate group called "The Singers." They make an additional "mini tour" in the late spring.

1982

CONCERT CHOIR

Few organizations come to mean as much to Clarke Students as do the musical groups Concert choir and Singers.

Clark Adams, director of the two groups and music faculty member, demands dedication and loyalty to hard work and sacrifice. There are long hours of practice, then more practice (sometimes at the most indecent hours.)

But as the bonds of friendship are knit a strange thing happens. All the hours of hard work and sacrifice, all the 7:00 a.m. practices, all the sore feet and throats fade into a feeling of deep satisfaction of a job well done.

1982

The sacrifice began to pay off as the 1982 Choir Tour got underway. Leaving Clarke on April 17, performances were given every day — sometimes twice per day — until April 25.

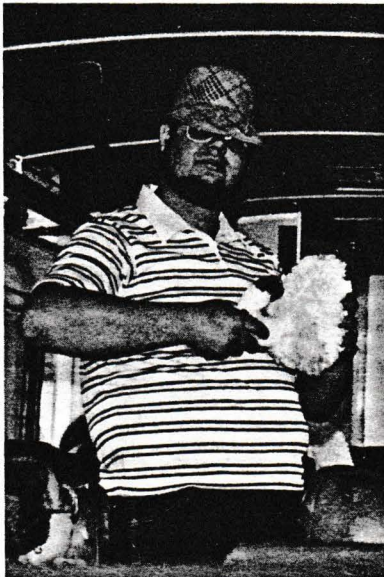

It wasn't all work though. There were fellowship at churches we had never heard of, friends were found that we never knew existed, and we had more fun than we ever knew was possible. Disney World will never be the same.

Through it all, our spirits soared as we shared the message of God in song.

Row Two — Angie Ethridge, Debra Allinder, Pete Pearce, Merrill Cassel, Mark Giles, Virginia Gardner, Lisa Flora.
Row Three — Timmy Aycock, Tony Higginbotham, Tim Johnson, Jeff Hardy, Jamie Meaders, Eric Mitchell, Joey Lawrence, and Johnnie Lawrence.

Chosen by audition, the Clarke College choir performs throughout Mississippi and neighboring states. Under the direction of Mr. Clarke Adams, the choir provides an opportunity for growth as a musician, as a Christian sharing your faith, and enables a student to have some wonderful experiences with his fellow students. The choir serves as a major drawing-card in the recruiting efforts of Clarke College as well. Often while on tour the music faculty has an opportunity to speak with a prospective student about attending Clarke.

The Clarke College Singers under the direction of Mr. Clark Adams, is composed of a select group of singers usually chosen by audition during the fall semester. The Singers are busy performing for banquets, conventions, and various other church and civic related programs. The group has a special segment of the choir tour in the spring and for the past several years has taken a separate tour of their own as well. It is an honor to be chosen for this group and their performances are always eagerly anticipated by the student body at Clarke.
